ANNOUNCEMENT OF WASHINGTON STATE
MARINE PILOT EXAMINATION
FOR THE GRAYS HARBOR AND PUGET SOUND PILOTAGE DISTRICTS

On Monday April 5, 2021, in Seattle, Washington, the Washington State Board of Pilotage Commissioners (Board) will administer to qualified applicants a written examination to be followed by a simulator evaluation to those eligible. Applicants who meet or exceed the cut score set by the Board on the written examination and simulator evaluation will be placed on a waiting list to be called into a pilot training program as needed. Successful completion of a pilot training program is required in order to qualify for issuance of a state pilot license for the applicable Pilotage District.

Applications to sit for the exam will be available on our website www.pilotage.wa.gov, or by written or e-mail request.
